LYNNE POPASH JOINS REGENCY GLOBAL TRANSPORTATION GROUP

Pittsburgh, PA October 1, 2015 – Regency Global Transportation Group, Ltd. announced today that Lynne Popash, who spent 25 years with VisitPittsburgh as Vice President of Partnership Development, will become the new Senior Vice President of Client and Community Relations beginning Monday, October 5, 2015.

Located on Pittsburgh's North Shore, this premier transportation company founded in 1991 by Thomas Miller is a leader in chauffeured transportation in Pittsburgh while also providing service in more than 500 locations globally.

“My goal,” said Miller “has always been to build a chauffeured transportation company focused on developing relationships by consistently providing a high quality service. I believe the only way to accomplish this is by employing the very best people. Lynne Popash exemplifies the professionalism and dedication we look for in our leaders. She's a dynamic, respected leader in the Pittsburgh Business community.”

“I'm honored to join Tom Miller and Linda Gasper, Senior Vice President at Regency Global Transportation Group. I'm also thrilled and excited to bring my work experience with Pittsburgh's leading organizations and companies to enhance the hospitality and corporate business at Regency,” said Popash. “I look forward to working with Regency's many existing clients while we continue to develop new relationships.
